

THE CENTRE FOR RESEARCH FOR TEACHER EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT

through

THE HOROWITZ ENDOWMENT FUND
FACULTY OF EDUCATION, UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

2015 Outstanding Teacher Education Doctoral Dissertation Award

Value $250 plus an award plaque

Eligibility Awarded every second year to an outstanding graduate who has completed a PhD or EdD in Teacher Education, in the Faculty of Education at the University of Alberta, and who has convocated at either the 2013 or 2014 Fall convocations or the 2014 or 2015 Spring convocations. Selection will be based on scholarly excellence and preference will be given to dissertations of direct relevance to teacher education practice and policy in Canada. There are no restrictions on citizenship.

Application Process Applicants should submit:

1. Three (3) copies of an eight to ten (8 to 10) page, double spaced summary of their dissertation. At the top of the first page, include the title but no other information.
2. A covering letter including the title of the dissertation.
3. A nomination letter from their supervisor or a member of their supervisory committee.

The Committee will prepare a short-list from the submissions received. This part of the process will be conducted as a blind review, coordinated by the Chair of the Doctoral Dissertation Award Committee.

Those not included in the short-list will be informed by mail.

Those included in the short-list will be asked to submit a copy of their dissertation to the Doctoral Dissertation Award Committee. The Committee will prepare a second short-list from these candidates. An outside expert will select the winner from this short list.

Send the application to:

Dr. Janice Huber
Director, Centre for Research for Teacher Education and Development
University of Alberta, Faculty of Education
Room 633, Education South
Edmonton, AB T6G 2G5

Those short-listed for the award will be informed of the outcome of the competition in December, 2015. The award winner will be required to present a seminar on their doctoral research in the winter, spring or fall term, 2016.

Deadline September 1, 2015 for submission of application.